If you are beginning your career in international affairs — or are interested in pursuing one — and want to learn more about Australia’s foreign policy, this tour is for you!

AIIA VIC’s Young Professionals Study Tour to Canberra is a unique event designed for young professionals eager to engage and network with experts in international affairs and foreign policy. The tour provides the opportunity for insightful discussions on a range of topics with some of the country’s top foreign policy experts. It offers an unparalleled opportunity for knowledge enrichment and networking. Such exposure will allow young professionals to build meaningful connections within the foreign policy landscape, fostering relationships that can shape their careers and open doors to new opportunities.

The Study Tour includes FULL ACCESS, at a significantly reduced rate, to the AIIA's Annual National Conference, Australia's leading event on Australian foreign policy. At the conference, you will hear from many distinguished guests who shape the nation's policies including ministers, academics, top government officials and industry leaders. The National Conference Masterclasses, included as part of the Study Tour, allow participants to engage in intimate discussions with experts.

After the National Conference, Study Tour participants will have exclusive bespoke access to embassy visits, iconic governmental institutions, and foreign policy roundtables.
